

GLOBAL CITIZENS CIRCLE

Atlanta Circle
January 17, 1999

Feedback

I was extremely pleased to have been present at this weekend's program honoring Leah Tutu, John Hume, Coretta Scott King, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and Andrew Young. Global Citizens Circle is becoming known for its tradition to honor the most deserving people who have worked for and made accomplishments in the areas of nonviolence and reconciliation. My congratulations for the contributions that Global Citizens Circle has made to a nonviolent society.

Mubarak Awad
Director, Nonviolence International
Washington, DC

A heartfelt thanks for inviting me to your first Southern Circle in Atlanta. I was absolutely overcome and privileged to be there and to have the opportunity to participate in the Martin Luther King, Jr. Commemoration weekend. The memories of that weekend will be with me for a long time.

Angila Chada
Springboard Opportunities
Belfast, Northern Ireland

A feeling of privilege to be there! A sense of the generosity of the occasion – I wish there had been more time. Hume, Young, Tutu offered fundamental insight that keeps deepening for me. Conversation with Hume keeps reshaping my thoughts – reflecting on his generosity and his sense of history. Thank you!

Tony Brinkley
Chair, English Department
University of Maine, Orono, ME

A wonderful success! What a tremendous opportunity for us to draw from the energies of these leaders, along with the dynamic Circle members. Just being inside Ebenezer Church was tantamount to making a pilgrimage to Mecca. In Boston, we are beginning to move towards the establishment of a monument to Dr. King – something to keep an eye on!

William Forry
Editor-In-Chief, The Reporter Newspapers
Dorchester, MA

I am so impressed with what Global Citizens Circle has accomplished over the past 25 years. It is really quite extraordinary to bring so many diverse people together and have such a great feeling of warmth, acceptance and respect pervade everything. There is absolutely no question that weekends like this facilitate greater peace, understanding and sharing of wisdom and ideas. Your values and mission are so worthwhile. Thank you again for an incredible weekend that I know will stay in my heart for the rest of my life.

Snowden McFall, President
Brightwork Advertising & Training Inc.
Author, Fired Up

Good idea to start a Circle in Atlanta!

Axel Leblois
World Times/World Paper
Atlanta, GA

It was uplifting and a loving spirit. This is a step to make the world a better place! It was great!

Jamila Canady
Student, Spelman College;
Bahai Faith
Atlanta, GA

This is my first opportunity to be “in the conversation.” How wonderful that it should happen – globally – and thanks for the invitation to share. I look forward to more!

Rev. Elizabeth Clement
Associate Minister
First Congregational UCC
Atlanta, GA

As we continue to work towards global unity, I truly believe that these type of gatherings are needed and are a vital component to achieving world peace ... please continue the work.

W. Imara Canady
Special Projects Coordinator
Office of the Mayor, Atlanta, GA